TARENCE KINSEY FOUNDATION (NON-PROFIT) ORGANIZATION

TK Foundation Newsletter

Top Story: “Who we are” as a Foundation.

Tarence Kinsey Foundation (Non-profit) Organization, Tampa, Florida was established on 21 September 2009, for the purpose of establishing and supporting community projects, especially those involving our youth and their families in Tampa Bay community and surrounding areas.

1. Mission:

Our mission is to empower and motivate our youth by developing and fostering goal setting accountability and social responsibility skills. We will instill a “Yes I Can” Commitment to achievement with focus on academics, health, physical fitness and career preparedness

2. Goal:

Is to increase the amount of kids we help every year by providing more college scholarships, mentoring programs, life skills events, and additional educational and athletic resources to help better the lives of our youth.

3. Vision:

Our ultimate vision is to enrich the quality of life for our youth and families. We have a strong focus on helping kids understand their potential, proper decision making and community to family.

Mentoring Program:

Is a program within the TK Foundation called “Circle Me” with the mission of improving the social, moral, physical and mental well being of young teens. We impart information and skills that educate, promote leadership, accountability, health and wellness. Our aim is to circle the individual with love and support help to enrich his or her quality of life.

Our goal is to ensure that every teen reach their highest potential.
